May 10th, 1912.

Mr. J. Livingston R. Morgan,
Columbia University,
New York.

My dear Sir:-

I have just received your letter of May 9th asking for information regarding membership in this Society.

I am sending you, under separate cover, a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws, which will probably give you all the information you need on that subject. I might say, however, that the limit of membership is full so that at the present time we can only elect Associate Members, and if you should desire to become an Associate Member it would give me great pleasure to present your name at the next meeting of the Council, which will probably take place within two or three weeks. I enclose herewith an application blank.

Should you desire any further information on the subject kindly drop me a line, and I will take great pleasure in supplying it.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

My dear Mr. Belden;

Many thanks for your information regarding the American Numismatic Society. I should very much like to become a candidate for Associate Membership, and would be very grateful to you if you will present my name. Apparently by an oversight you neglected to enclose an application blank. Believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

J. Livingston R. Morgan.

June 15th, 1916.

Professor J. Livingston R. Morgan,
Columbia University,
New York.

Dear Sir:-

We have received your letter of resignation with regret.

It will not be necessary to act on your resignation until the meeting of the Council preceeding our Annual Meeting next January.

In the meantime you might wish to reconsider, and we could table your petition.

Can we not retain your interest ?

Quite recently our activities, in all departments, have increased many fold, and facilities for members and other investigators have added increased interest in our library, collections, exhibitions, etc.

We have just finished some important alterations to our building, and have repainted everywhere.

We have doubled our workers in the building, and now have our President, E. T. Newell, and our Treasurer, John Reilly, Jr., permanently installed here, with their specialized collections and libraries.

We will always welcome you, whether a member, or not, and hope we can be of service to you.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
